It will be the biggest meeting held in this county. The call for the meeting follows:

FARMERS ATTENTION!

A meeting of the Christian county executive committee of the Dark Tobacco Growers Protective Association is called to meet in the city courtroom at Hopkinsville on Monday, February 27, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock there will be a meeting of the farmers in the circuit courtroom. This will very likely be the last mass meeting of the season and it is most earnestly desired that every tobacco grower and every man interested in the welfare of the county will be present. Come yourself, without fail, and see that all your neighbors attend the meeting, for it is one of the utmost importance.

Young Lady Perhaps Fatally Injured While Out Riding.

Miss Cora Andrews, daughter of Esq. N. R. Andrews, of Wynn post-office, Tenn., a few miles from Lafayette, while out horse-back riding, was thrown and perhaps fatally injured. Her foot caught in the stirrup and she was dragged several hundred yards. All of her garments, with the exception of her underclothing, were torn from her, one of her arms was broken, the side of her face and breast were terribly lacerated, and her head received a number of ugly gashes.

Miss Andrews lay in the road for an hour before being found.

Charlie Street.

Charlie Street of the 1903 Hopkinsville club, last season of the Terre Haute club, has signed a Cincinnati contract with the "Reds" at $500 per month. When he played with Hopkinsville he received $40 per month and was the best in the "Kitty" league. He is still hardly 21 years old and his rise has been with wonderful rapidity.

Henderson is selling season tickets for the Baseball Club.

The Henderson Journal says:

Managers for the season will be Kubitz, Henderson; Lloyd, Paducah; Kalb, Vincennes; Ferrell, Hopkinsville, and probably Rutledge, Cairo.

Manager Kubitz says he will be very strict with the players; that there will be no favorites in the club. Every one will have to play hard ball to draw their pay.

Twenty-five men will be tried out. The local players will arrive about April 5th.

Rube Gardner, who was the best pitcher in the Henderson club in 1904, has signed with Montgomery Southern League at $250 per month.

Bases Full.

Joe Miller, in the Indianapolis Star, contributes the following eccentric ode for the comfort of the longing baseball fanatics:

Now sadness, grief
And winter's gloom
Without relief
Our hearts entomb.

What though the winds
Of yesterday
Brings several kinds
Of woe our way?

Woes will be done,
Then you'll forget
Your gloom. The sun
Is shining yet.

The time draws nigh
When we shall see
A radiant sky
And throb with glee.

Your hair you'll pull,
You'll jump and shout:
"The bases full
And two men out!"

CITY CIRCULATION

Will be Looked After by Mr. Edward W. Clark.

The city circulation of the Kentuckian is increasing so rapidly since the recent change to a tri-weekly that it has been found necessary to put a man in charge of this branch of the business. Mr. Edward W. Clark is now manager of the city lists and will assist also in the business department. He is at present First Lieutenant and commanding officer of Company D, and comes to us highly recommended as a capable, energetic young man, of wide acquaintance and increasing popularity and influence. The Kentuckian has for many years covered the county thoroughly and made no especial effort to push its city circulation with the semi-weekly, but there seems to be a city demand for a paper published every other day and a closer attention will be paid to this department. The paper will be sent three months for 50 cents, which is less than four cents a week. The regular edition of Saturday is four pages, the other two are eight pages.
